The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to file a timely and proper response to the Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application mailed on August 13, 2001, which set a two-month period for response. The abandonment date of this application was March 14, 2002 (i.e., the day after the expiration of the date of the period set for response, plus the full extensions of time obtainable).

Applicant's representatives, the undersigned attorney and his law firm, never received the Filing Receipt and the Notice to File Missing Parts mailed August 13, 2001. As Applicant's representative, the undersigned attorney continued pursuing prosecution of the application by filing an Information Disclosure Statement on September 13, 2001, by filing a Status Letter inquiring about the status of the application on March 27, 2002, and by calling the Applications Branch on June 11, 2002. During this phone call to the Applications Branch, the undersigned attorney was orally notified by Ms. Stokes that the Notice to File Missing Parts had been mailed on August 13, 2001. Ms. Stokes faxed a copy of the Notice to the undersigned attorney. While the abandonment date has passed, the undersigned attorney has not yet received a formal Notice of Abandonment.

The failure to timely respond to the Notice to File Missing Parts and the subsequent abandonment was unintentional as evidenced by Applicant's continued prosecution of the application.
